You asked us: "...I wondered whether any action was taken in the end regarding the LRA [Labour Relations Agency] data breach?"

We received your request on 14 March 2023

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

Having searched our records, I can confirm we hold information in the scope of our request.

The outcome, and the action the ICO took, for this data breach is available on our website. It can be seen on line 957 of the Q3 self-reported personal data breach cases.

As the information is already reasonably accessible to you, technically it is withheld under section 21 of the FOIA.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.
