Q1 Does the draft guidance cover the relevant issues about the right of access?

Yes

No

Unsure / don't know

If no or unsure/don't know, what other issues would you like to be covered in it?

Q2 Does the draft guidance contain the right level of detail?

Yes

No

Unsure / don't know

If no or unsure/don't know, in what areas should there be more detail within the draft guidance?

Q3 Does the draft guidance contain enough examples?

Yes

No

Unsure / don't know

If no or unsure/don't know, please provide any examples that think should be included in the draft guidance.

Q4 We have found that data protection professionals often struggle with applying and defining 'manifestly unfounded or excessive' subject access requests. We would like to include a wide range of examples from a variety of sectors to help you. Please provide some examples of manifestly unfounded and excessive requests below (if applicable).

Repeated requests and malicious requests where the purpose of the request is in full knowledge that the organisation will struggle to deal with it. I doubt many organisations are able to deal with requests in an efficient manner, finding and collating information is very difficult.

Q5 On a scale of 1-5 how useful is the draft guidance?

1 - Not at all useful	2 - Slightly useful	3 - Moderately useful	4 - Very useful	5 - Extremely useful

Q6 Why have you given this score?

For Data Professionals it will be useful, but for ordinary business folk it may be too much. perhaps a summarised version might be better for this stakeholder group?

Q7 To what extent do you agree that the draft guidance is clear and easy to understand?

Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neither agree nor disagree	Agree	Strongly agree

Q8 Please provide any further comments or suggestions you may have about the draft guidance.

I think different versions should be produced fro different stakeholder groups. The guidance about how to supply the information is very confusing.
