Request

You asked us:

I am trying to access the old enforcement notices (decisions) on the ICO website. The ICO website shows this only going as far back as October 2021. As far as i understand, there are decisions that go way back before this date and i am not sure why i cannot access or see them on your website. Can you please have a look and let me know how i can access the old enforcement notices going past 2021?

We received your request on 31 October 2023.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

You can find the information you have requested on the National Archives website.

Because the information is already reasonably accessible to you, technically it is withheld under section 21 of the FOIA.

Section 21 states that we don't need to provide you with a copy of information when you already have access to it.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our Privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and set out your rights. Our retention schedule can be found here.

Yours sincerely
