Request

You asked us:

You previously answered this request, but could I request again the current backlog as it stands now.

This is in relation to a previous request for:

Could you please provide me with the current caseload list for FOI appeals against public authorities at the time of you investigating this request? Please note that I'm essentially asking for a more up-to-date version of this request:

*https://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/current_foi_case_list
<https://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/1105/response/7243/attach/html/3/FOI%20caseload%20June08%20with%20headings.xls.html>*

If the way data is stored has changed since then, please feel free to disregard it and provide the current caseload list in the way it is currently structured, though I would expect to at least see the public authority, a synopsis of the case, exemptions applied, and whether the complaint has been assigned to a caseworker yet.

We received your request on 31 October 2023.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

I have attached a dataset of our current active FOI/EIR caseload as of 14 November 2023.

I have also provided the below table as a summary of the number of cases within the dataset.

Case Status	Number Of Cases
Awaiting Further Evidence	318
Case Officer Review	10
In Progress	112
Investigation	634
Received	41

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.
