

30 October 2023

IC-257882-D2D9

I write further to my correspondence of 11 October 2023 in which I explained that we were extending the timescale for a response to part of your request to undertake a public interest test.

The decision has been taken in this case that the public interest lies in section 42 not being maintained. As a result you are entitled to receive more information in relation to the Sendgrid Transfer Risk Assessment, which has been published on our disclosure log along with the public interest test itself.

As you will see when you view the Transfer Risk Assessment, the exemption under section 40(2) still applies and we have therefore withheld the personal data of individuals.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our Privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and set out your rights. Our retention schedule can be found here.

Yours sincerely
