

Should I refer to Information Access?

Should I refer to Information Access?

The requester has received this information before, it is information already publicly available or is normally provided.

This is something that can be handled as normal course of business and does not need to be referred to Information Access, but do contact us if you have any queries or concerns.

This content is created by the owner of the form. The data you submit will be sent to the form owner. Microsoft is not responsible for the privacy or security practices of its customers, including those of this form owner. Never give out your password.

Powered by Microsoft Forms | Privacy and cookies | Terms of