ICO Case Reference IC-237685-D6X8

Request

On 12 June 2023 you wrote to us in relation to a data breach committed by NICGROUP. You requested details of the outcome and if the people affected had been told.

We have dealt with your request in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act (2000).

Response

We have searched our records and systems for information relating to data breaches involving NICGROUP. Following reasonable searches using the criteria you have provided, we can confirm that we do not hold any information that falls within scope of the request.

This concludes our response to your request.

Next steps

Please come back to us in the first instance if you would like a clarification or a review of the way your request has been handled. If you remain dissatisfied you can then request a review of our decision under the FOIA or make a complaint about how your request has been handled by writing to the Information Access Team at the address below or email icoaccessinformation@ico.org.uk.

Your request for internal review should be submitted to us within 40 working days of receipt by you of this response. Any such request received after this time will only be considered at the discretion of the Commissioner.

If having exhausted the review process you are not content that your request or review has been dealt with correctly, you have a further right of appeal to this office in our capacity as the statutory complaint handler under the legislation. To make such an application, please write to our FOI Complaints & Appeals Department at the address below or visit our website if you wish to make a complaint under the Freedom of Information Act.

A copy of our review procedure can be accessed from our website here.
