ICO Case Reference IC-239899-V5T3

Request for information

Request received 20 June 2023:

"Has the investigation in to a breach involving Blair & Bryden reached an end?"

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA). As you are aware, this legislation provides public access to recorded information held by a public authority unless an appropriate exemption applies.

Our response

We do hold information in scope of your request.

The personal data breach (PDB) case reported to ICO by Blair and Bryden on 26 April 2023 was closed on 13 June 2023 with the case closure status of 'No Further Action'.

This concludes our response to your request.

FOI review procedure

If you are dissatisfied and wish to request a review of our decision or make a complaint about how your request has been handled you should write to the Information Access Team at accessicoinformation@ico.org.uk, or the postal address below.

Your request for internal review should be submitted to us within 40 working days of your receipt of this response. Any such request received after this time will be considered only at the discretion of the Commissioner.

If having exhausted the review process you are not content that your request or review has been dealt with correctly you have a further right of appeal to this office in our capacity as the statutory complaint handler under the legislation.

To make such an application, please write to our FOI Complaints and Compliance team at the address given, or visit our website at Official information concern | ICO.
