Request

You asked us for a copy of a data breach notification sent by Taylor Haldane Barlex LLP on, or around, 26 January 2023.

We received your request on 16 May 2023, which was the date clarification was received.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

Having completed searches of our records, we can confirm we hold information in the scope of your request. The ICO received a breach report from the data controller on 27 January 2023.

The requested information has been withheld under section 44 of the FOIA.

Section 44(1)(a) states;

'(1) Information is exempt information if its disclosure (otherwise than under this Act) by the public authority holding it -

(a) is prohibited by or under any enactment'

The enactment in question is the Data Protection Act 2018. Section 132(1) of part 5 of that Act states that:

"A person who is or has been the Commissioner, or a member of the Commissioner's staff or an agent of the Commissioner, must not disclose information which—

(a) has been obtained by, or provided to, the Commissioner in the course of, or for the purposes of, the discharging of the Commissioner's functions,

(b) relates to an identified or identifiable individual or business, and

(c) is not available to the public from other sources at the time of the disclosure and has not previously been available to the public from other sources, unless the disclosure is made with lawful authority."

Section 132(2) lists circumstances in which a disclosure can be made with lawful authority, however none of them apply here. As a result the information is exempt from disclosure.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.
