- The time in days between the ICO asking the Cabinet Office for submissions and receiving them, or the date of this request, if submissions is still outstanding."

We received your request on 7 November 2023.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We can confirm that we hold information which falls within the scope of your request.

Of the 81 cases you asked us to look at which remained open at the time of your request, we had asked for submissions from the Cabinet Office in 52 of the cases by the date your request was received. Where a response was still outstanding at the time your request was received we used 7 November 2023 as a substitute date, to calculate the number of days. We have attached a csv document containing a list of the number of days in those 52 cases, as per your request. Please contact us if you require clarification of the information provided.

Please be aware that some cases may have been closed after the date of your request.

There is no way to electronically extract this type of information from our casework system. This means that the Information Access Team had to manually undertake searches for the information required to provide a response. The searches were undertaken carefully and every effort has been taken to provide accurate information and to ensure consistency in the dates used to calculate the information you requested.
