Dear [REDACTED]

Re: ICO UK GDPR Investigation – easyJet Airline Company Limited

Our case reference number: INV/0250/2020

Your case reference number: 1001110353

I am writing to inform you that, having carefully considered the above case in light of the ICO's prioritisation principles, the Information Commissioner has exercised his administrative discretion to de-prioritise this case, for the reasons set out below.

The Commissioner does not consider that pursuing enforcement action in this case is currently the best use of the ICO's limited legal and investigative resources, in particular, when considered in light of the ICO's overall portfolio of work.

Further information about compliance with the UK GDPR can be found at the following link.

Thank you for your co-operation and assistance during the course of our investigation.

We now consider this case closed.

Yours sincerely

Stephen Bonner

Deputy Commissioner
Regulatory Supervision

Please note that we are often asked for copies of the correspondence we exchange with third parties. We are subject to all of the laws we deal with, including the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation, the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Freedom of Information Act 2000. You can read about these on our website (www.ico.org.uk).

The ICO publishes basic details about the complaints, investigations and self-reported data breaches it handles. These details include the name of the organisation concerned, the dates that we opened and closed the case, and the outcome. Examples of published data sets can be found at this link (<https://ico.org.uk/about-the-ico/our-information/complaints-and-concerns-data-sets/>).

We do not include personal data in the published datasets and will anonymise the names of sole traders etc prior to publication. We also do not publish cases concerning domestic CCTV complaints and may not publish certain other cases if we feel it is not appropriate to do so in the circumstances.

If you wish to raise an objection to us publishing a case in the datasets, whether or not we have published it yet, please contact us explaining your reasons for this at icoaccessinformation@ico.org.uk.

Please say whether you consider any of the information you send us is confidential. You should also say why so that we can take that into consideration. However, please note that we will only withhold information where there is good reason to do so.

For information about what we do with personal data see our privacy notice at www.ico.org.uk/privacy-notice
