Request

In summary, you asked us:

"Under FOI act could you please provide me with the number of fines and the size of each fine that has been levied against a data controller using article 83 ."

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We have searched our records based on the information and can confirm that we hold information within the scope of your request.

The ICO publishes information about all of the monetary penalties that we issue on our website.

We also publish information specifically about our work to recover fines. On this page there is a link to a spreadsheet showing every monetary penalty we have issued since 2010.

Because this material is already reasonably accessible to you, it is technically withheld under section 21 of the FOIA. This exempts information which is reasonably accessible to the applicant through means other than a request under the FOIA.

It is an absolute exemption, which means it is not necessary for us to consider any public interest test.

This concludes our response to your request.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Our Privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and set out your rights. Our retention schedule can be found here.
