Request

In summary, you asked us:

"Please provide me with the registration fee payers number and date of registration for the Robin Hood Inn, Barrow-in-Furness, Cumbria."

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We have searched our records based on the information and can confirm that we do not hold information within the scope of your request.

That is, we do not have a registration number for the Robin Hood Inn, Barrow-in-Furness, Cumbria.

Not all organisations need to register with the ICO. Our registration self-assessment walks through the conditions that would require registration. It may be that the Robin Hood Inn does not meet these requirements.

It is also possible that another organisation operates as the Data Controller for the Robin Hood Inn. For example, if this pub is part of a chain, then the chain as a whole may be registered with us.

The Register of data protection fee payers is freely available online and lists all currently-registered organisations.

This concludes our response to your request. We hope this information has been helpful to you.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.
