IC-286308-W8R8

Request

On 3 February 2024 you asked us to confirm whether or not Thames Valley Police have reported an incident involving misuse of body camera footage by officers, to the ICO, which matches the description provided within a recent BBC report. You also asked us to confirm whether or not this is being investigated by the ICO.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Response

We have conducted reasonable searches based on the details you have provided. These details do not match any of the personal data breach cases or investigations recorded on our case management systems.

Advice and assistance

Please note that we publish information on our website about our work on personal data breaches, investigations and actions we've taken. If you would like to report a concern about an organisation to the ICO you can do so here.

This concludes our response to your request.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
