We received your request on 8 February.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

In response to the first part of your request I can confirm that the ICO publishes a register of data protection fee payers at the following webpage.

Information Commissioner's Office - Register of data protection fee payers \(ico.org.uk\)

We do not however publish the names of the DPO's or other contact details on this register. To establish what details have been published by the Service Prosecuting Authority you would need to contact them directly.

In response to the second part of your request I can confirm we hold no information relating to the DPO of the Service Prosecuting Authority or the Director of Service Prosecutions.

It is possible that the Service Prosecuting Authority sits within a wider organisational umbrella.

Having made further enquiries and searched our register you can, if necessary, submit a new information request relating to a different data controller.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.
