We received your request on 2 July 2024.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We have searched our systems for the names of the organisations you have provided, as well as the address used and the organisation's registration number with us.

Having undertaken these searches, we were unable to locate any information falling within the scope of your request. In other words, we have not received a personal data breach report matching your description, nor do we hold any complaints regarding these organisations.

Please note that not every personal data breach is reportable and there is a possibility that the organisation has determined that the breach did not meet the threshold for reporting to the ICO.

If you or another individual have been affected by a data breach and wish to raise a complaint with us about it, you can do so via our website here.

This concludes our response to your request. I hope the information provided is helpful.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
