ICO Case Reference IC-319762-Y6X4

Request for information

Request received 16 July 2024:

"Could you please provide the following...

- 1. Total number of reprimands, enforcement, or any other sanctions involving the International Transfer of data over the last 3 years.*
- 2. Links on your website giving details of the 3 most recent examples."*

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA). This legislation provides public access to recorded information held by a public authority unless an appropriate exemption applies.

Our response

We do hold information in scope of your request. In the past three years the ICO has issued one reprimand in relation to international transfer of data. This was issued to the Police Service of Northern Ireland \(PSNI\). The details of this and other action we've taken are published on the ICO website.

This concludes our response to your request.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing within 40 working days if you want us to carry out a review.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you remain dissatisfied, you can raise a complaint to the ICO as regulator of the Freedom of Information Act. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
