Request

You asked us:

Hi - do you have any internal lines to take, or other guidance, on whether a transfer of personal data to a person who is outside the UK, but to whom UK GDPR applies by virtue of Article 3(2), is considered a restricted transfer?

We received your request on 29 August.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We do hold some information within the scope of your request. Please find attached an excerpt from our internal guidance on International Transfers which covers this topic, this is the only piece of guidance etc that we hold covering this specific point.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
