Request

You asked us:

"The Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") is tasked under statute to act as a regulator and public body responsible for discharging certain statutory responsibilities with regards to information rights exercisable by members of the public. Where members of the public contact the ICO in relation to information rights concerns, and where the ICO is additionally contacted, either before or after the member of the public, by a concerned third party in relation to such member of the public, this third party contact can be defined as a "Third Party Contact or Request"

Please provide a copy of all relevant policies, procedures and documents of the ICO relating to its handling of "Third Party Contacts or Requests."

We received your request on 26 August.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We do not hold any information within the scope of this request. We do not generally discuss data protection complaints with individuals other than the person whose personal data is the subject of the complaint, so therefore this is not a topic we've needed to produce any policies etc about.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
