Case Reference IC-341796-H3J6

Request

You asked us for a copy of the rules for operating CCTV within a private members social club.

We received your request on 31 October 2024.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We don't hold the information you have requested, as there are no specific rules for the scenario you've referred to.

However, data protection laws can be a relevant factor in the use of CCTV, and we do have published guidance about this.

If you need to check whether data protection laws need to be considered, please check the ICO's guidance on our website about the data protection considerations associated with CCTV technology:

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
