ICO Pension Arrangements

ICO staff are entitled to join the Civil Service Pension Scheme (CSPS)

The CSPS provides excellent benefits for members and having a civil service pension can be considered to be a significant benefit of working for the ICO.

Your Civil Service pension may be one of your most important sources of income when you retire. It is important that you regularly review your arrangements to ensure they continue to meet your requirements.

Under the umbrella of the CSPS there are five different pension schemes, as listed below.

- classic – a defined benefit scheme, now closed to new members
- classic plus – a defined benefit scheme, now closed to new members
- nuvos - a defined benefit scheme, open to new entrants from 30 July 2007
- premium – a defined benefit scheme, closed to new members from 30 July 2007
- partnership - a defined contribution arrangement with an employer contribution, open to most new entrants.

Which scheme you are a member of is determined by when you joined the ICO or if you were in CSPS prior to joining. Alternatively you may have chosen to join the Paternership scheme if you decided not to enter into one of the other four schemes.
