6. Sussex Police acknowledged the request on 8 August 2019.
7. On 4 September 2019, Sussex Police wrote to the complainant to explain that it held information relevant to the complainant's request, but that it would need to extend the time taken to complete its public interest test considerations in respect of a qualified exemption of the FOIA.

Scope of the case

8. The complainant contacted the Commissioner on 23 October 2019 to complain about the delay in Sussex Police's consideration of the public interest test.
9. On 18 November 2019 the Commissioner wrote to Sussex Police, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant within 20 working days. To date, a substantive response has still not been provided.
10. The Commissioner has considered whether Sussex Police has complied with its obligations in relation to section 17 of the FOIA.

Reasons for decision

11. Section 1(1) of the FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

12. Section 10(1) of the FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".
13. Section 17(3) of the FOIA states that where a public authority is relying on a qualified exemption, it can have a "reasonable" extension of time to consider the public interest in maintaining the exemption or disclosing the information.
14. Although the FOIA does not define what constitutes a reasonable time, the Commissioner considers it reasonable to extend the time to provide a full response, including public interest considerations, by up to a further 20 working days. This means that the total time spent dealing with the request should not exceed 40 working days, unless there are exceptional circumstances. A public authority would need to fully justify any extension beyond 40 working days.

15. In this case, the total time taken by Sussex Police has exceeded 40 working days. The Commissioner does not consider there to be any exceptional circumstances and finds that, by failing to complete its deliberations on the public interest within a reasonable time frame, Sussex Police has not complied with section 17(3).
16. Sussex Police is now required to finalise its public interest considerations under section 17(3) of the FOIA and respond to the complainant.
