

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 5 June 2023

Public Authority: Ministry of Defence
Address: Whitehall
London
SW1A 2HB

Decision (including any steps ordered)

---

1. The complainant requested information relating to a Joint Terminal Attack Controller Policy. By the date of this notice the Ministry of Defence (MOD) had not issued a substantive response to this request.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the MOD has breached section 10(1) of FOIA in that it failed to provide a valid response to the request within the statutory time frame of 20 working days.
3. The Commissioner requires the MOD to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.
  - The MOD must provide a substantive response to the request in accordance with its obligations under FOIA.
4. The MOD must take this step within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of FOIA and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 1 March 2023, the complainant wrote to the MOD and requested information in the following terms:

- “1. Please provide a dated list of all editions of JSP 918 with page numbers for each edition.
  2. Please identify the edition number and date of the current edition of JSP 918.
  3. Please provide a copy of the current edition of JSP 918.”
6. To date, the MOD has not acknowledged the request for information.

Reasons for decision

---

7. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:
  - “Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –
  - (a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
  - (b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.”
8. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and “not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt”.
9. On 9 May 2023 the Commissioner wrote to the MOD, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant’s request within 10 working days.
10. Despite this intervention, the MOD has failed to respond to the complainant.
11. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the MOD did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the MOD has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with FOIA.
