Request and response

5. On 3 August 2023, the complainant wrote to the public authority and requested information in the following terms:

"1. Can you please confirm the details of the company awarded the £37,000+ catering contract for the Volunteer Event held in August 2021? (See "above-£500 expenses" disclosure for Aug 2021). Was it the "City Events Ltd" with [redacted name] as director?

2. Can you please confirm that the contract was not advertised in press, and selected companies were approached directly? How many?

3. Can you please provide any details re: selection of City Events Ltd to invite a bid from? Why was the company selected?

4. If this *is* the "City Events Ltd" of [redacted name] with, does the council know if [redacted name] is related to former Bexley councillor [redacted name]?"

Reasons for decision

---

6. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

7. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".
8. On 19 September 2023 the Commissioner wrote to the public authority, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant's request within 10 working days.
9. Despite this intervention the public authority has failed to respond to the complainant.

10. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the public authority did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the public authority has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with FOIA.
