

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (Section 51)

Information notice

Date: 1 October 2019

Public Authority: Chief Constable of Sussex Police
Address: Malling House
Lewes
East Sussex
BN7 2DZ

Section 51

Under section 51 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "Act"), which is set out below, the Information Commissioner (the "Commissioner") has the power to serve a notice on a public authority requiring it to furnish her with any information she requires to enforce the requirements of the Act.

51. – (1) If the Commissioner –

(a) has received an application under section 50, ...

she may serve the authority with a notice (in this Act referred to as "an information notice") requiring it, within such time as is specified in the notice, to furnish the Commissioner, in such form as may be so specified, with such information relating to the application, to compliance with Part I or to conformity with the code of practice as is so specified.

Application under section 50

1. The Commissioner has received an application under section 50, reference FS50836015, for a decision whether a request for information made by the complainant to Sussex Police on 10 July 2018, has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of Part I of the Act.

Nature of complaint

2. On 10 July 2018 the complainant made the following request for information under the FOIA:

"Please provide the following information concerning the Safeguarding Investigation Unit which deals with cases of abuse, or potential abuse, against adults:

- 1) When was the Safeguarding Investigation Unit created?*
 - 2) How many cases have been referred to it since this date?*
 - 3) How many of these were investigated?*
 - 4) Is there any breakdown in the figures between males and females being subjected to abuse where abuse has been reported? What are the figures for male, or female, abuse for each of the years so far?*
 - 5) What was the outcome of cases reported, or referred, to it? How many of these were taken up with other relevant bodies? How many were then investigated by Sussex Police for criminal offences? Please give the figures for each of the years so far.*
 - 6) Have there been any cases referred to the Crown Prosecution Service for prosecution? Please state the number of the cases referred to the CPS for each of the years to date.*
 - 7) Have there been any successful prosecutions to date?"*
3. Following the Commissioner's intervention, Sussex Police responded on 16 January 2019. It provided the information in scope of part (1) of the request but denied holding the remaining requested information.
 4. The complainant requested an internal review on 6 February 2019. He subsequently advised the Commissioner that, despite her intervention, no internal review response had been received.
 5. The Commissioner accepted the complaint and wrote to Sussex Police on 16 May 2019, advising the scope of her investigation. She asked Sussex Police to:
 - provide a brief explanation of what the Safeguarding Investigation Unit is and what it does;
 - provide detailed explanations for the parts of the FOIA cited; and
 - explain why it took so long to respond to the request.
 6. Sussex Police was required to respond by 14 June 2019.
 7. While Sussex Police did ultimately provide a response on 19 July 2019, that response did not address all of the issues raised.

8. Despite further correspondence from the Commissioner, dated 6 August 2019 and 2 September 2019, Sussex Police has failed to provide a satisfactory explanation of its handling of the request.

Information required

9. In view of the matters described above the Commissioner hereby gives notice that in the exercise of her powers under section 51 of the Act she requires that Sussex Police shall, within 30 days of the date of this notice, furnish the Commissioner with a copy of the following information, as requested in her correspondence dated 6 August 2019:
- clarify whether Sussex Police is able to provide any information within the scope of parts 2-7 of the request, regardless of whether or not that information is complete or accurate. If you are able to provide any information, please respond to the complainant.
 - alternatively, if Sussex Police maintains that no relevant information is held, address the following questions:
 - What searches have been carried out to check if information was held within the scope of the request and why would these searches have been likely to retrieve any relevant information?
 - If searches included electronic data, which search terms were used? Please explain whether the search included information held locally on personal computers used by key officials (including laptop computers) and on networked resources and emails.
 - If no or inadequate searches were done at the time, please rectify this now and let me know what you have done
 - If the information were held would it be held as manual or electronic records?
 - Is there a business purpose for which the requested information should be held? If so what is this purpose?
 - Please also explain whether Sussex Police provides statistics about the work of the Safeguarding Unit, and if so, what those statistics comprise.

Failure to comply

10. Failure to comply with the steps described above may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court

Reference: FS50836015

(or the Court of Session in Scotland) pursuant to section 54 of the Act, and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Right of appeal

11. There is a right of appeal against this information notice to the First-tier Tribunal (Information Rights). Information about the appeals process can be obtained from:
