Request

You asked us:

"Please send to me copies of all the correspondence and associated attachments between the ICO and the Creative Industries Independent Standards Authority (CIISA)."

We received your request on 20 April 2025.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

We have searched our systems for information relating to the Creative Industries Independent Standards Authority (CIISA), who are registered with the ICO under reference ZB543188. The registration can be viewed on our website.

We can confirm that we hold information which falls within the scope of your request. Please find attached a copy of the information which we can disclose under the FOIA.

Some information has been withheld as it is exempt from disclosure. This is because it is the personal data of third parties and is exempt under section 40(2) of the FOIA.

A small amount of information has also been withheld in reliance upon section 44 of the FOIA.

Section 44(1)(a) states:

"(1) Information is exempt information if its disclosure (otherwise than under this Act) by the public authority holding it -

(a) is prohibited by or under any enactment"

The enactment in question is the Data Protection Act 2018. Section 132(1) of part 5 of that Act states that:

"A person who is or has been the Commissioner, or a member of the Commissioner's staff or an agent of the Commissioner, must not disclose information which—

(a) has been obtained by, or provided to, the Commissioner in the course of, or for the purposes of, the discharging of the Commissioner's functions,

(b) relates to an identified or identifiable individual or business, and

(c) is not available to the public from other sources at the time of the disclosure and has not previously been available to the public from other sources, unless the disclosure is made with lawful authority."

Section 132(2) lists circumstances in which a disclosure can be made with lawful authority, however none of them apply here. As a result, the information is exempt from disclosure.

This concludes our response.
