

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 7 April 2025

Public Authority: Secretary of State for the Home Department
(Home Office)

Address: 2 Marsham Street
London
SW1P 4DF

1. Request:

The complainant requested the following information from the Home Office on 28 January 2025:

I am writing to clarify and resubmit my Freedom of Information request (FOI2025/00314), originally submitted on 8 January 2025.

In my original request, I asked for:

1. The total number of Palestinians who applied for family visas from 7 October 2023 to the date of the latest publicly available statistical release.
2. Of those, the total number of applications that resulted in visas being granted.
3. The total number of applications that were rejected, broken down by category of rejection.

Following your response, I would like to clarify point 3 of my request. Please provide the total number of applications that have been:

- Rejected (i.e., not processed due to administrative or technical issues).
- Refused (i.e., processed but denied after assessment).

If possible, I would appreciate it if the numbers for rejections and refusals could be provided separately. Additionally, I would be grateful if you could include the Home Office's definitions of "rejection" and "refusal" to ensure I fully understand the distinctions between these terms."

2. Commissioner's Decision:

A public authority will breach section 10 of FOIA if it fails to respond to a request within 20 working days. Based on evidence available to the Commissioner, by the date of this notice the public authority has not issued a substantive response to this request. Therefore the Commissioner finds a breach of section 10.

3. Steps:

The public authority must provide a substantive response to the request in accordance with its obligations under FOIA.

The public authority must take this step within 30 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of FOIA and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

4. Right of Appeal:

Either party has the right to appeal against this decision notice to the First-tier Tribunal (Information Rights). Information about the appeals process may be obtained from:
