Request

On 11 June 2024 you made the following request:

Can you please tell me whether UNISON Wakefield Local Government Branch reported any security data breaches in the last 24 months? The last known security data breach was in October 2024 of approximately 55,000 e-mails relating to trade union matters. There was two other occurrences prior to this relating to emails also, however not sure if any were reported to ICO.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Response

We hold information about one personal data breach case reported by this data controller. This can be found on our 2023/24 Q3 data set and the case reference is IC-263772-L4Y5.

Please note that not all personal data breaches need to be reported to the ICO. For more information see our guidance:

<https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/report-a-breach/personal-data-breach/personal-data-breaches-a-guide/>

We publish information about personal data breaches reported to us here:

<https://ico.org.uk/about-the-ico/our-information/complaints-and-concerns-data-sets/self-reported-personal-data-breach-cases/>

This concludes our response to your request.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Your information

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.

Yours sincerely
