Request

On 3 July 2024 you asked us about the "Publication of a list under Art 35(5) of the UK GDPR (where no DPIA is required)" and "Has such a list been published by the ICO? If so, could you please link me to that?"

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Response

We do not hold any information that falls within scope of your request. Our DPIA guidance states:

We have the power to establish this type of list, but we have not done so yet. We may consider a list in future in the light of our experience of how the DPIA provisions are being interpreted in practice.

This concludes our response to your request.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure on our website.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.

Our privacy notice explains what we do with the personal data you provide to us, and sets out your rights. Our Retention and Disposal Policy details how long we keep information.
