

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 31 August 2022

Public Authority: Home Office
Address: 2 Marsham Street
London
SW1P 4DF

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant requested information about equality impact assessments. By the date of this notice the Home Office had not issued a substantive response to this request.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the Home Office has breached section 10(1) of the FOIA in that it failed to provide a valid response to the request within the statutory time frame of 20 working days.
3. The Commissioner requires the Home Office to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.
 - the Home Office must provide a substantive response to the request in accordance with its obligations under the FOIA.
4. The Home Office must take this step within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of the Act and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 6 July 2022, the complainant wrote to the Home Office and requested information in the following terms:
 - "1. Has the Home Office conducted an Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) for more thorough searches (as defined in PACE Code A 3.6)?
 - 2. Has the Home Office conducted an EIA for searches involving exposure of intimate parts of the body (as defined in PACE Code A 3.7)?

3. Please disclose any EIA conducted in relation to more thorough searches or searches involving the exposure of intimate parts.”

6. To date, a substantive response to the request has not been issued.

Scope of the case

7. The complainant contacted the Commissioner on 5 August 2022 to complain about the Home Office's failure to respond to their request.
8. The Commissioner has considered whether the Home Office has complied with its obligations in relation to the time for compliance at section 10(1) of the FOIA.

Reasons for decision

9. Section 1(1) of the FOIA states that:

“Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.”

10. Section 10(1) of the FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and “not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt”.
11. On 11 August 2022 the Commissioner wrote to the Home Office, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant's request within 10 working days.
12. Despite this intervention the Home Office has failed to respond to the complainant.
13. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the Home Office did not deal with the request for information in accordance with the FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the Home Office has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with the FOIA.
